

Welcome to the summer everyone!! It has been long awaited but here is your Summer 2 edition of the Fox. I am very excited to have lots of new and enthusiastic writers on this edition and hope you enjoy everything they have to share with you.

Mrs George and the Fox team

In this issue:

- The Royal Wedding report
- What am I?
- Royal Wedding quiz
- Travel
- Miss Plummer interview
- Suessical the musical
- Book review

The Royal Wedding

On Saturday 19th May, Meghan Markle and Prince Harry married at Windsor Castle. At midday, famous guests arrived to watch this memorable day. Guests included legends like Elton John and James Blunt, famous singers; David Beckham, a retired footballer; James Corden, an actor who starred in Peter Rabbit and the Emoji Movie and famous tennis player Serena Williams, who is also a close friend of Meghan Markle. Royal figures also attended, like Queen Elizabeth II and Prince Phillip, who were greeted by a fanfare, Prince Charles and Camilla, who arrived with Doria, Meghan's mum, Princess Beatrice and Eugene, with their Dad, Prince Andrew, Princess Anne, Prince William and Princess Kate, with George and Charlotte, who were page boys and bridesmaids. Meghan Markle turned up last with the twin boys who held her very long train. She was greeted by Prince Charles, her future father-in-law, half-way up the aisle. When Megan reached Harry, he pulled back her veil. They said their vows; Meghan's mum was biting her lip to keep back the tears. Harp music was played as the newly wedded couple signed the wedding certificate. They exited out and kissed at the door. They got in their carriage and drove around Windsor to a crowd full of millions of people. They were seen that evening getting into an E-type jaguar with a number plate which had their wedding date on, to a celebration with the royal family. How did you celebrate?

By Niamh OLeary

What am I?

If you want to race, I can out run any human. I am the fastest animal in the rainforest and I live on the forest floor. I can run really fast and jump quite high. As I open my razor-sharp claws, I use my speed to kill my prey. I like the shade. If you look at me my spots stand out. I have spots all over me that are orangey-yellow. If you touch my sleek, silky, midnight fur it is so soft in the glistening blue sky. What am I?

See The Fox in colour & download your copy from our website:
Visit <http://www.croftonannedalejunior.co.uk/school-newspaper/>
or for lots more interesting stories from Anne Dale, visit our Blog site @
<http://annedaleblogs.org.uk/> ☺

For any of the quizzes, please put your name and answers in the yellow box in the Year 6 corridor.

Travel

Thorpe Park

Over the Easter holidays I went to Thorpe Park. My favourite ride was Speed and it went up to 80 miles per hour! I would say to anyone who is looking for a fun day out that they should try Thorpe Park, as long as they are 1.4m tall. (That's the height for all the big and fun rides). Even though the queues are long it's all worth it in the end.

Woburn Center Parcs.

I had a fantastic time at Center Parcs. Me and my brother went out every day on a bike ride. We also went tree climbing, roller skating, den building and my lucky Mum and Grandma went to the spa. Nearly every day I went to the arcade. I got sad because we saw a duck that only had one leg, so we fed and stroked it. We went swimming every day and saw Mrs Jump. It was funny and me and my family had an amazing time.

Gran Canaria

Recently, I went to Gran Canaria (which is a small island in the Canary Islands located in Spain). There was much to do including a 5-hour cruise, a luscious beach and a variation of different shops in the town.

Early in the morning, at about 2:45am, I had to wake up so we could leave the airport for 6:50am. We landed in Maspalomas (a place on the island at 10:55 and went on a coach to Puerto Rico. My family and I arrived at the hotel but couldn't get into our hotel room until 2:00pm so we just explored the hotel which had lots of different rooms: 2 restaurants, 3 pools, a pool bar, a reception and many more. When we were allowed to go to the hotel room, we nearly got lost as the hotel was on a cliff so there were many lifts.

By Tabbi, Willow class

Quiz Time! How well do you know the new Royal?

When was Meghan Markle's birthday?
What was the Royal wedding ring made of?
How old is Prince Harry?
What is Prince Harry's whole name?
How far is Prince from the throne?
When is prince Harry's birthday?
Who designed the wedding dress?
What cake did they eat for dessert?
What is Meghan Markle's real first name?
Who made the invitations?

Preparations for our summer concert

We are pleased to announce the up-coming Crofton Anne Dale Junior School Summer Concert. I interviewed Miss Money about what our guests can expect. She said that this concert will be an entertaining hour with a variety of music. Children will play brass instruments, including cornets and trumpets, the piano, guitars, string instruments (including cellos and violins) as well as wind instruments (flutes and clarinets). The ukulele group will be playing too and the school choir will be singing happy songs and songs that make you think. This amazing concert will take place in the Junior School hall at 6:30pm on Monday 2nd July. All the children are practising, practising, practising and we are hoping for an enthusiastic audience on the day.
By Lilly, Ash class

Miss Plummer is leaving this week to have a baby. Shani and Siobhan interviewed her and this is what they found out.

Have you time here at Crofton Anne Dale Junior School?

Yes absolutely this is an amazing school with lovely children.

Are you excited about your baby?

I'm very excited I can't wait to give him a cuddle when he gets here!

What were your favourite things that happened here?

I loved the dress up days and I especially enjoyed Crofton's got talent.

Are you going to be coming back?

Of course I am, I love this school.

Will you miss us?

Yes. So much. Lots.

We wish Miss Plummer all the best with her new adventure. We will miss you too!

Suessical the musical

With my drama group (kings youth theatre), we will be doing 2 performances at the Kings Theatre. The one I'm doing is Suessical the musical which is a collaboration of all of Dr. Suess' songs in the form of a fascinating plot! The main character is Horton the elephant who, basically, hears a person on a speck of dust, puts it onto a clover, the other animals in the jungle of Noal disapprove and put him on trial. There is a variation of different animals in the play, such as a sour kangaroo, a mischievous trio of monkeys and, of course, the cat in the hat. I am one of the monkeys, in fact, the main monkey. I am Wickersham I. The show is on the 20th of July (1st day of our summer holidays!) and this is the younger play.

If you would prefer a performance with older actors, Loserville is the one for you! The approximate range of the ages is 12-18. It all starts when Michael Dork asks a girl out and said yes. Then... he gets dumped. The music is in a Mcfly and Busted style (the bands) and is set in a high school. I was going to do this play but they said I was too young so I moved to Suessical; instead. It will be on the 19th and 20th of July at the Kings Theatre. Come and see!!

Book review – Awful Auntie – David Walliams

5 OUT OF 5 STARS

About the author: David Walliams is my favourite author because his books have a mix of happy, funny times and sad times.

My favourite part of the book was when Stella, the little girl, rang the police and the police got a detective to come to Stella's house to see if her Auntie had really poisoned Stella's mum and dad. It turned out the detective was Stella's awful auntie!

The saddest part of the book was when Stella's auntie stretched Stella so much her arms and legs nearly came out of their sockets. It must have really hurt!

Quiz answers

1.4th August 1981 2. Welsh Gold 3. 33 years 4. Henry Charles Albert David Windsor 5. 5th in line 6. 15th September 1984 7. Clare Waight Keller 8. Lemon Elderflower 9. Rachel 10. Barnard Westwood